CUTBACKS IN P. O. SERVICE ARE ORDERED

Washington (AP)—The Post Office Department said today there will be some outright layoffs of postal workers and reductions in working hours for others due to the service cutbacks to be started Saturday.

Warren Postmaster B. S. Knabenshue said this afternoon that the local office stood ready to close its windows and cease delivery on Saturday if so ordered. He estimated any curtailment of temporary employees would effect only 12 to 15 men here. There are few overtime hours worked locally, Knabenshue said.

Postmaster General Summerfield estimated last week that about 20,000 employees would "be affected" by the service reductions. He sent postmasters an order last Friday to curtail services after failing to get assurance that Congress would appropriate the 47 million dollars he says he must have to maintain normal service through June 30.

Officials said the 20,000 include "both temporary employees and substitutes, working on a part-time basis, who will be laid off entirely, and some regular fulltime workers who will suffer through curtailment of working hours and elimination of overtime work."

When Summerfield talked of cutting back postal service, if he didn't get his request appropriation, Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee called it "unadulterated bluff."

But the present situation points toward virtual certainty of no regular mail delivery Saturday and the closing of post office windows that day.

Summerfield ordered the following cutbacks on a progressive basis:

Effective April 13, closure of all post offices to the public on all Saturdays and Sundays, and discontinuance of all city, village and rural delivery service on Saturdays.

President Suggests Modernizing of the Nation's Airways

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to set up a new agency to decide on ways of modernizing the nation's airways control system so it can handle increasing traffic.

"This measure will greatly expedite the improvement of air traffic control and air navigation and I therefore urge its early enactment," the President said in a special message.

His recommendation accompanied a report by Edward P. Curtis, who was appointed a special presidential assistant more than a year ago and assigned the job of tackling the air traffic problem. Curtis has been an Eastman Kodak Co. vice president and an Air Force general.

Curtis proposed a three-member airways modernization board to decide what devices and systems are needed to control civil airplanes, which, he estimated, will fly 70 billion passenger miles a year by 1975.

Minister Asks That Judgment Be Reserved on Mate Swapping

Millbrae, Calif. (AP)—The pastor of two suburban couples who plan to trade mates says he will ask his congregation to reserve judgment.

"I will deliver my regular Palm Sunday sermon next Sunday," the Rev. R. F. Winkelman said yesterday, "and add without comment the 7th Verse from the 8th Chapter of John:

"He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

"That leaves most of us out," added the minister of Community Methodist Church in this San Francisco suburb.

Planning the swap are Dr. Frank Schwartz, 38-year-old eye surgeon, and his wife Jean, 32; and Martin Brooks, 35-year-old owner of a pet and garden supply store, and his wife Betty, 35.

The couples met two years ago and became increasingly friendly at Cub Scout meetings, Parent-Teacher Assn. conferences and at church choir practice. Dr. Schwartz and Mrs. Brooks sang in the choir and Mrs. Schwartz taught a Sunday school class.

Except for them, the minister

Republican Plan To Replace Highway Dep't With a Three-Member Commission Falters

Harrisburg (AP)—A Republican plan to replace the State Highways Department with a three-member Highway Commission faltered today.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, said there was a chance the proposal would be killed unless Democrats support it—and that help was unlikely.

"There are some Republican senators against the idea," he told a newsman. "If we don't get any Democratic votes, we'll have to return the bill to committee to be pigeonholed."

A showdown is planned when the lawmakers return to Harrisburg April 23. They recessed yesterday until after the Easter holidays.

Mahany left in doubt the fate of a House-passed plan to undertake a $100,000 investigation of the Highways Department. House Republicans are pushing for the probe but Senate Republicans are not as enthusiastic.

The highway ripper measure would in effect remove Secretary Joseph J. Lawler from the helm of the Highways Department. He would be replaced by the proposed commission.

The six-year terms of the commissioners would expire two years apart in an effort to provide continuity of department operations. At present, each governor appoints a highways secretary—normally for a four-year span.

The highways development arose as Gov. Leader signed into law legislation to reduce the gasoline tax from six cents a gallon to five cents on June 1 instead of Sept. 12.

The extra cent was imposed in 1955 to raise funds for repair of flood-damaged bridges and roads.

The governor, who asked the Republican legislature to keep the gasoline tax at six cents a gallon, renewed his plea on the basis that new construction would have to be stopped on 20,000 miles of state-supported roads.

At the same time, he said municipalities would receive only 52 million dollars in state aid for roads in the next two years under the new law, compared to 72 millions they would get under a six-cent rate.

Other legislative developments: Sales Tax—The Senate postponed until after the Easter recess a final vote on a series of amendments designed to strengthen the enforcement provisions of the 3 per cent sales tax law.

Final Adjournment—House Republican leaders laid plans to fix May 1 as the cutoff date for the introduction of new bills—a sign of final adjournment.

Uninsured Motorists—The administration plan to require every Pennsylvania motorist to prove his financial responsibility—in effect to take out automobile liability insurance—reached the House yesterday.

Railroad Strike May Idle Pittsburgh Mills

Pittsburgh (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp. today began an orderly shutdown of Pittsburgh district plants in the event that a strike of Union Railroad employees comes off as scheduled at 7 a. m. next Monday.

The railroad, a subsidiary of big steel, serves the company's plants.

Some 1,400 members of the United Steelworkers employed by the railroad are set to walk off the job unless agreement can be reached in a contract dispute.

However, there is the possibility that a presidential fact-finding board could be appointed under provisions of the Railway Labor Act. This would automatically call for a 60-day cooling off period.

declared, "no one . . . knows all the factors in this case."

Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Brooks, who are sharing a small apartment in Reno while they obtain divorces, are and have been good friends, their husbands said.

The plan disclosed by the husbands is for Brooks to move into the Schwartz residence and adopt the Schwartz's 9-year-old son and 4-year-old daughter and for Dr. Schwartz to move in with the present Mrs. Brooks and adopt the 9-month-old baby girl and the three boys, aged 4, 8 and 10, there.

Dr. Schwartz said there would be "no strain" in the exchange because "the children are all like brothers and sisters already" and "just feel they're getting an extra father and mother."

The two wives met newsmen late last night in Reno at the office of the attorney they are sharing. They issued a brief, perfunctory statement which said merely that after talking to their husbands on the same long-distance call "it has been determined that they have been misquoted and exaggerated. Our plans for the future are indefinite."

Harrisburg (AP)—A loophole in the 3 per cent sales tax law may be closed by Senate Republicans to prevent taxation of coal.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, GOP floor leader, said an amendment to preclude such a levy is being drafted for submission when the legislature reconvenes April 23.

Denial Issued By McCloskey In Pardon Case

By BOB HOLTON

Harrisburg (AP)—Matthew H. McCloskey, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, today "categorically" denied contributing money toward a successful eight-year legal fight to save the lives of three Bucks County slayers.

"I want to categorically deny that at any time I laid out any money to anybody in this case," he told a legislative committee investigating the State Pardons Board.

The Philadelphia contractor and newspaper publisher sprinkled his testimony with witicism about competing Philadelphia newspapers as he was questioned about commutations granted David Darcy, Harold Foster and Harry Zeitz.

The three were sentenced to death for the 1947 slaying of a bystander in a Bucks County tavern holdup. Their sentences were commuted to life imprisonment last September by Gov. Leader upon unanimous recommendation of the board.

McCloskey said that he may have contributed some "trivial things" toward the legal fight.

He said they would include such things as allowing the use of his car in certain cases.

He denied repeatedly having spoken personally or by telephone with Gov. Leader last Sept. 28 or 29 the day before and the day the commutations were signed.

Asked by David Kohn, committee lawyer, how he became interested in the case McCloskey replied:

"My interest came because of Miss Ford."

Seek Ways To Prevent The Taxation of Coal

Harrisburg (AP)—A loophole in the 3 per cent sales tax law may be closed by Senate Republicans to prevent taxation of coal.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, GOP floor leader, said an amendment to preclude such a levy is being drafted for submission when the legislature reconvenes April 23.

"Our intention always has been that coal should not be taxable because it is a very sick industry in Pennsylvania," he said. "Since a question has arisen, we will write a specific exemption into the law."

TAX CUT BILL THIS SESSION UNDER DEBATE

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

Washington (AP)—Income tax reduction at this session of Congress became an increasing possibility today.

Speaker Rayburn of Texas, leader of the controlling Democratic majority in the House, said prospects are "good" for a tax cut effective next Jan. 1. He commented after an unusual policy meeting yesterday with Democratic members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

Rayburn's statement reflected Democratic determination to make tax reduction at this session of Congress a party issue—and possibly beat the Republicans to the wire before next year's election.

Appraising the tax situation, Rayburn made clear his belief that Congress can pass a tax reduction bill in time to apply to next year's income—provided the government's tax revenues hold up at anticipated levels, and Congress continues its budget-cutting campaign.

House Republicans, who thus far have taken no official position, displayed an eagerness to get into the act on their own. President Eisenhower and his tax advisers have taken a wait-and-see position on tax reduction, with suggestions that revenue surpluses be applied first to debt reduction.

Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts told reporters he, too, was "for a tax cut just as soon as we can do it." Commenting on Rayburn's statement, he added, "If we can cut spending, we'll join 'em."

Before they act on tax reduction House members want to see what the government's income is going to be. A sizable drop in tax revenues from the anticipated level of around 69 billion dollars this year might halt early action.

More will be known about the revenue picture when the Treasury reports soon after April 15 on the volume of tax receipts for this fiscal year.

Supermarkets Announce Price Cuts in Coffee

New York (AP)—The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. and General Foods Corp. announced coffee price cuts today. The reductions followed a recent drop in the cost of green coffee beans.

A&P cut its bag-packed coffee to 2 to 4 cents a pound. The new prices are 89 cents for Red Circle; down 2 cents; 93 cents for Bokar, down 2 cents; and 83 cents for Eight O'Clock, down 4 cents.

General Foods reduced wholesale prices of its coffees 2 to 4 cents a pound. This followed a cut of 2 to 3 cents by the company on Feb. 25.

Maxwell House, Yuban and Regular Brands were cut 4 cents, and Regular Bliss was reduced 2 cents.

Standard Brands, manufacturer of Chase & Sanborn, "has made no move on coffee prices up to this time," a spokesman reported.

Big Cut in Fund To Operate Soil Bank Is Recommended

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower today told Congress it can cut 254 million dollars from the $1,254,000,000 he asked to operate the soil bank program in the 12 months beginning July 1.

This reduces his budget request for the program to an even billion dollars.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said that the change resulted from a detailed study of operations of the soil bank program which has just been completed.

Eisenhower notified Congress of the change estimated in a letter to House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.).

FREE INOCULATIONS

Pittsburgh (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. said today that nearly 22,000 of 27,000 eligible employees in Allegheny County have participated in the initial phase of the firm's free anti-poliomyelitis program. Inoculations were given to employees between March 7 and 26 at 12 company locations as part of the Allegheny County war on polio.

Concert by the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Enjoyed By Capacity Crowd at Beaty

Beaty Junior High School's beautiful big auditorium was filled to overflowing last evening as fanciers of orchestral music in Warren and surrounding area gathered to hear the great Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, brought here by the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company as a public service and benefit for community projects.

Charles R. Tranter, executive vice president of Warren Area Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the visiting musicians and their very able director, William Steinberg, expressing the committee's pleasure that approximately one-third of the tickets had been sold to students, and commending the sponsoring utility firm for its public-minded gesture.

The orchestra, utilizing every inch of the large Beaty stage, proved even more delightful than on the occasion of its initial visit here a few seasons back, when the Jaycee music committee sponsored the appearance as a Concert Series "extra."

It would be difficult to select a "best" from the program, which ranged from works of the classic masters to selections from the Rodgers Broadway hit "Carousel".

The Prelude to Die Meistersinger was outstanding, and reasonably so, since Director Steinberg has long been considered an expert in the Wagnerian field; the arrangement for the Emperor Waltz by Strauss was totally new and most unusual.

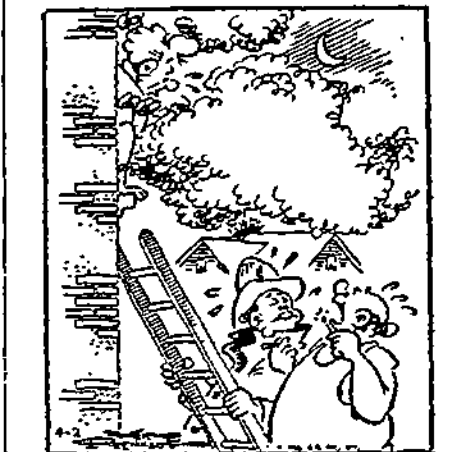

Popper's Hungarian Rhapsody for Cello and Orchestra was chosen to present the considerable talents of Theo Salzman, first cellist with the orchestra and soloist with some of the world's finest musical groups.

The orchestra commanded the rapt attention of its audience from the opening bars of Mozart's Overture to The Marriage of Figaro, through the Schubert Symphony No. 6 in C Major, and the lovely Valse Triste by Sibelius, which rounded out the impressive program.

No single distraction was evident to detract from the superb performance emanating from the stage and, at the close, applause was prolonged until an encore was given.

Last night's concert marked the final stop in a series, unique among musical organizations of similar stature. Today the orchestra returns to Pittsburgh, where week-

Ouster of Jordan's Premier Result of Quarrel on Policy

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

London (AP)—Jordan King Hussein's ouster of Premier Suleiman Nabulsi was reported today to be the result of a bitter quarrel over whether the Arab nation should be exposed to Soviet or American influence.

Diplomats in Washington believed the stand that Jordan's 24,000-man army takes in the next few days may determine whether Hussein can stop his country's drift toward the Soviet-aligned policy of Egypt and Syria. It was assumed Hussein would not have acted against the popular Premier unless he had assurance of military support.

Reports reaching Beirut, Lebanon, said all roads leading into Amman, the Jordan capital, have been blocked for two days by troops and military vehicles, apparently in an attempt to keep troublemakers from entering the city.

In a move to strengthen his hand, Hussein promoted his chief military aide, Brig. Mohammed Maatya, to major general and made him director general of public security. Maatya, former Jordan military attaché in Damascus, replaces Maj. Gen. Bahjat Tabbaah, who was given a long-term leave of absence.

PAPER HIRES PRICE

Scranton (AP)—The price of the Scranton Times will be 7 cents a copy beginning Monday, April 15, it was announced today. The Times said constantly mounting costs made the price increase necessary. The Times now sells for 5 cents per copy. The proposed two-cent boost is the first subscription advance since December, 1948.

SCHOOL TAX BILL

Harrisburg (AP)—The House rejected yesterday 90-88 a bill that would have authorized school districts to boost the per capita tax to $10. A vote of 106 is required to pass a bill.

ACCIDENT CAUSES PARTIAL EVACUATION OF LARGE AREA OF WESTERN PENN'A TOWN

Ellwood City (AP)—Chlorine gas escaping from a leaking railroad tank car early today made a score of persons ill and forced evacuations of a large area near this western Pennsylvania community.

Ellwood City Hospital reported that it had treated a total of 24 persons, many of them members of volunteer fire companies.

Six persons were admitted for further treatment, the hospital said, adding that none appeared to be in serious condition.

A workman wearing an oxygen-supplied mask succeeded in shutting off the escaping greenish-yellow gas that was boiling from the tank car, about an hour after the leak was discovered.

Residents of the tiny community of Frisco, where the leak developed, were returning to their homes as a rising wind began carrying away the gas.

Firemen, using fog nozzles, sprayed water over the tank car and surrounding buildings in a continuing effort to decontaminate the area.

The tank car, parked on a railroad siding, was estimated to contain perhaps 50,000 pounds of a chlorine compound used in the manufacture of a bleaching fluid. It was consigned to Bishop Laboratories Inc., which has a plant in the town of Frisco, 25 miles northwest of Pittsburgh.

Jay Johns, an official of another chemical firm which has a plant nearby, said he was notified of the leak about 5:30 a. m.

The grade school in Frisco was ordered closed for the day.

Johns, an official of Calgon, Inc., a firm manufacturing water softeners and other chemicals, said workmen employed by his company had been ordered to report for work after the gas was cleared away from the plant area.

The town of Frisco lies mostly in the Connoquenessing Valley and has about 1,200 residents. Of these, at least 200 left their homes before the gas leak was controlled.

Police, firemen and Civil Defense volunteers rushed to spread the alarm, knocking on doors to warn residents to flee the neighborhood where the gas concentration appeared heaviest.

Firemen searched for some time before locating the gas leak. Meanwhile, ambulances were called from other communities as a precautionary measure.

John Pelloni, owner of the building housing the Bison plant, said his son Daniel, 25, succeeded in shutting off the escaping gas.

"If the whole tank of gas had escaped you could smell it in Pittsburgh," Pelloni said.

Clairton Police Shoot And Capture a Robber

Clairton (AP)—Clairton police today shot and captured one of three men fleeing from a jewelry store robbery.

The wounded man, identified as Robert Owens, 19, of Pittsburgh's Hill District, was admitted to McKeesport Hospital. The bullet struck his right side.

Police Lt. Peter Makin and Patrolman Leo O'Donnell said they were cruising in a police car about 4 a. m. when they heard the crash of breaking glass. They got out of the car and spotted three men running from Teper's Jewelry Store.

Venus De Milo Pedestal Used As Viewing Post To See Queen

By PIERRE LEGROS

Paris (AP)—France's highest society used the Venus de Milo's pedestal for a cocktail table and ancient Greek vases for cigarette butts at the party last night for Queen Elizabeth.

Prince Philip, the Queen's husband, smoking a big Havana cigar, came dangerously close to Raphael's painting of St. Michael.

It all happened at a gala dinner and reception given by Premier Guy Mollet and his Cabinet for the visiting Queen at the Louvre museum. The party lasted into the early hours today.

More than 3,000 guests swarmed around the Queen in efforts to get a close look at her.

The museum's centuries-old statues and paintings probably never witnessed such a celebration. The museum keepers and guards certainly were never so nervous as the buffet guests lit cigarettes while waiting for the Queen to come out of the dining room.

Egypt Charges Israel Holding Points on Gulf

Jerusalem (AP)—An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman denied today Egyptian charges that Israeli troops still hold two points on the Egyptian Agaba Gulf coast.

The spokesman, Moshe Leshem, said no protest had reached Israel from any United Nations authorities on the Egyptian claims.

There was no immediate comment on another Egyptian charge that U. N. troops in the Gaza Strip are crossing the border to fraternize with Israeli women soldiers.

An official Egyptian source complained that Israeli troops were still stationed at Taba, a small town six miles southwest of the southern Israeli port of Eilat and at Ras el Nakb, apparently a point in the Sinai Peninsula 26 miles north of U. N.-held Sharm el Sheikh.

The Egyptian source said the Israelis had indicated they would not quit the two areas until Eilat is enlarged and fortified.

The United Nations declared officially March 8 that all Israeli forces had left Egyptian territory and the Gaza Strip. The announcement—

Labor Movement Is Facing Crisis Says Catholic Clergyman

Atlantic City, N. J. (AP)—A prominent Roman Catholic clergyman told the United Auto Workers convention that the labor movement faces "perhaps the most serious crisis in its entire history."

Msgr. George C. Higgins of Washington, who has been designated a member of the UAW's proposed public review board that will act as a watch dog on union ethics, said he was not "referring exclusively" to scandals uncovered by the U. S. Senate's racket investigators.

"The 'unfaithful servants' of labor, he said, 'are merely symbols, if you will, of a decline in moral and spiritual values on the part of the rank-and-file.'"

The principal obstacle standing in the way of reforms, he said, is "the apathy and indifference of a large segment of the rank-and-file." He advised the rank-and-file to "get down on their knees with some regularity and fervently say their prayers."

Msgr. Higgins said there had been published charges the review board of private citizens would serve as a "rubber stamp" for Walter P. Reuther's union. Men- tioning one critic—Raymond Moley of Newsweek—the clergyman was loudly cheered when he said, "I do think this group is a rubber stamp; he is just as crazy as a loon."

The clergyman said it would be "an honest to God public review board."

Penn'a TB and Health Society Holds Annual Meeting in Erie

Erie—Pennsylvanians numbering 949,200 received X-rays in surveys conducted in 1956 by county organizations of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society and the State Division of Tuberculosis Control.

In addition 75,300 persons were X-rayed by the State Division of Tuberculosis Control and the State Division of Industrial Hygiene. This is a total of 1,024,500 persons X-rayed in the effort to find unknown cases of tuberculosis, as well as other diseases of the chest. It represented an increase of 69,300 over the previous year.

These figures were given in the annual report of R. Winfield Smith, executive director of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society, which was given today at the 65th annual meeting of that organization in Erie.

X-ray surveys were conducted by 62 of the 65 affiliated organizations of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society. Fifty-two associations joined forces with the Pennsylvania Division of Tuberculosis Control in conducting cooperative surveys.

The report showed further progress made in case finding in the increasing number of hospitals which have adopted chest X-ray screening programs. Eighty-seven of the 230 hospitals in the State have instituted this procedure to find unknown cases of tuberculosis and other chest diseases among patients and personnel. Eight of these programs were instituted since January 1, 1956, and five other hospitals are about to inaugurate such programs.

Affiliated county organizations of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis and Health Society have contributed or assured financial assistance to 59 of the 92 hospitals. Approximately $304,000 has been contributed by affiliates for the purchase of equipment, in addition to other contributions given to make these hospital programs possible.

Twelve more boroughs made chest X-rays mandatory for food handlers. This makes 60 localities which require chest X-rays of food handlers. Two of these municipalities also require X-ray examinations of barbers and beauticians.

Affiliates of the TB and Health Society continued contributions to a Rehabilitation Fund to promote such services throughout the State.

Most of Nation Enjoys Fair and Dry Weather

By The Associated Press
Fair and dry weather prevailed in most of the nation today, a welcome relief after a steady brand of wet and stormy weather.

It was a little cool in some spots and a few areas reported light showers and snow flurries. But generally the over-all weather picture was in marked contrast of the pattern the last 10 days in areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Seaboard.

Showers or snow flurries sprinkled areas from West Virginia and eastern Ohio northeastward across western Pennsylvania into New York state during the night. The wet belt was expected to move into extreme northern New England during the day.

President of Cancer Society Stresses Vital Need For Funds

The research attack on cancer was described here today as having reached "a new era—an age of opportunity."

This view was taken by Dr. John Larson, president of the Warren County Unit of the American Cancer Society, who quoted a report from national headquarters of the Society on the progress made so far in the national research program.

In stressing the need for increasing funds for research the president said, "Reports from our national organization show that progress made in research is especially encouraging this year. This means that efforts must be stepped up even more and, consequently, more funds will be needed in this year's crusade."

"The ACS research efforts which have continued now for the last dozen years have been yielding a constantly increasing stream of results. Some of these, such as better radiation techniques and more powerful X-ray machines, and better and more radical surgery have paid dividends in saving lives. New chemical discoveries have lengthened the lives of some cancer patients and eased the suffering of others.

"But in addition to these advances which already have reached the clinical level, important strides have been made in fundamental research—the search for basic truths about cell growth, the intricate chemistry of the growing cell, differences between the normal and abnormal cell.

"We are told that much of this work has reached the stage which could be called on the threshold of promising results. Science is seeking final answers so that this knowledge can be applied practically. The discovery of marked differences in cancer will lead the way to developing a chemical that will attack only cancer cells. When the whole mechanism of the tissue cell is blue-printed, it will be possible to find new avenues to attack it. Or by finding out how this machinery starts malfunctioning, ways of preventing cancer could be discovered."

The President said that he did not want the public to mistake enthusiasm for optimism. "The ACS research program has reaped splendid results," he said, "but we have a long way yet to go. Our scientists may find the second chapter in this story a vastly more complicated and difficult one than the first. We must be prepared to support this effort for many years."

"While we keep our hopes high," Dr. Larson concluded, "it is only good sense to work even harder. We hope that funds available for research this year will be substantially increased. This will help to shorten the time when cancer's terrible threat will be eradicated for all time."

"I urge you all to give generously to the Crusade this year on C-Day, April 23rd."

Mrs. McCarthy Passes Up White House Luncheon

Washington (AP)—Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, wife of the Republican senator from Wisconsin, says she would not have attended a White House luncheon yesterday even if she had gotten her invitation in time.

"I wouldn't have gone anyway," she said. "When they wouldn't invite my husband because of his fight against communism I would hardly go either."

Yesterday's affair was a spring luncheon given by Mrs. Eisenhower for more than 100 guests. Mrs. Eisenhower's secretary said an invitation was sent to Mrs. McCarthy. Mrs. McCarthy said she never saw it.

Sheffield Rotary Club Hears Talk On Auto Insurance

Sheffield—Present for the Rotary Club luncheon-meeting on Tuesday were 24 members and five guests. Orrie Borden was welcomed home from Florida, and the guest list included R. R. Allen, Warren Rotarian and nephew of Dr. J. A. Allen; Floyd Rice of Warren, the speaker, and three high school seniors, Trudy Rogers, Becky Zandi, and Marion Capoli. The Club voted to donate to a worthy cause in the community.

Erv Rader had the program and introduced Floyd Rice, who gave an explanation of the proposed compulsory automobile insurance plan. He explained the plan will more or less fall under the State Insurance Commissioner and will therefore, be a political "plum". He read some interesting statistics from the experience of such a compulsory law that has been in effect in Massachusetts for some time. Prior to enactment there were 3,204 negligence cases, but five months after enactment the cases rose to 7,297, with steadily increasing insurance rates from that time. In the case of the State of New York, where the law recently went into effect, 32,000 policies were issued and subsequently cancelled which might be an indication that some of the insurance might have been in effect at the time that the licenses were issued, but was cancelled shortly after.

It was also interesting to note that the New York City rates average $205.00 per year against lower rates that apply in small N. Y. communities. Apparently there is now a movement to try to equalize rates throughout New York State which would mean a reduction for the drivers in the City of New York, but would result in a marked increase in rates to be paid by the citizens in the other communities.

Mr. Rice commented on the various methods of highway controls and spoke of the radar that is used in some states such as Virginia, and also talked about the flying officers in Indiana where speeders are spotted from the air and stopped and tickets given to drivers at various points ahead on the Route. The talk presented many other facts and was very educational in its nature.

MUSICAL REPUTATION UPHELD

A reputation the Warren area has enjoyed down through the years as a community composed of persons who possess an exceptional appreciation for the best in music and art was maintained last evening when a crowd that taxed the capacity of Beatty Auditorium turned out to hear the concert presented by the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Conductor William Steinberg.

Considering the fact that some concern had been expressed the past few days by the Citizens Committee in charge of arrangements, and the sponsors, the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, over the possibility that the attendance would not be a "sell out", the interest displayed on the part of citizens generally was most gratifying to all concerned, including the musicians in the orchestra.

The orchestra of more than 100 persons, including stage hands, managers, etc., traveled 80 miles to play the single engagement. Today the entourage returned to Pittsburgh where weekend concerts will conclude the winter season of 121 performances in 51 cities scattered among 15 states from Michigan to Florida. Incidentally last night's concert, and five other stops during the season were big musical events in relatively small communities like Warren, since major orchestras in the United States and Europe regularly go on tour, but usually visit only the larger cities. In this respect Warren was signally honored.

All costs were paid by the Manufacturers, a utility company serving western Pennsylvania, as a public service. All proceeds will remain in Warren to be added to funds for recreation purposes, mainly a municipal swimming pool and the Youth Canteen.

Warren is indeed grateful to Manufacturers Gas Company and the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra for the greatest musical treat in recent years.

DEATHS FROM BARBITURATES

Deaths from barbiturate poisoning in the United States are on the increase, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's statisticians report. In 1955, the latest for which complete data are available, accidental poisoning by barbiturates claimed 411 lives, as compared with 345 in 1954, 337 in 1953, and 327 in 1952. This reverses the trend for the years immediately preceding.

"Careless use of barbiturates, predominantly by adults, presents a difficult problem," the statisticians observe. "With more stringent restrictions being placed on their sale in many localities, it is not clear why the improvement in mortality which was recorded from 1949 to 1952 has not continued. It would seem that greater efforts should be made to acquaint the public with the dangers inherent in using such drugs carelessly."

About 30 percent of all deaths from accidental poisoning by solids and liquids during 1955 were caused by barbiturates, this compares with nearly 25 percent for all other drugs and medicines. The remainder of the fatalities were caused by a variety of substances, including such poisons as wood and denatured alcohol, lead compounds, carbon tetrachloride, benzene, kerosene, the alkalies and insecticides.

Much can be accomplished in reducing the loss of life, the statisticians point out, by keeping drugs and medicines in properly marked containers, by storing insecticides and disinfectants away from food and other edibles, and by keeping poisonous substances out of the reach of young children.

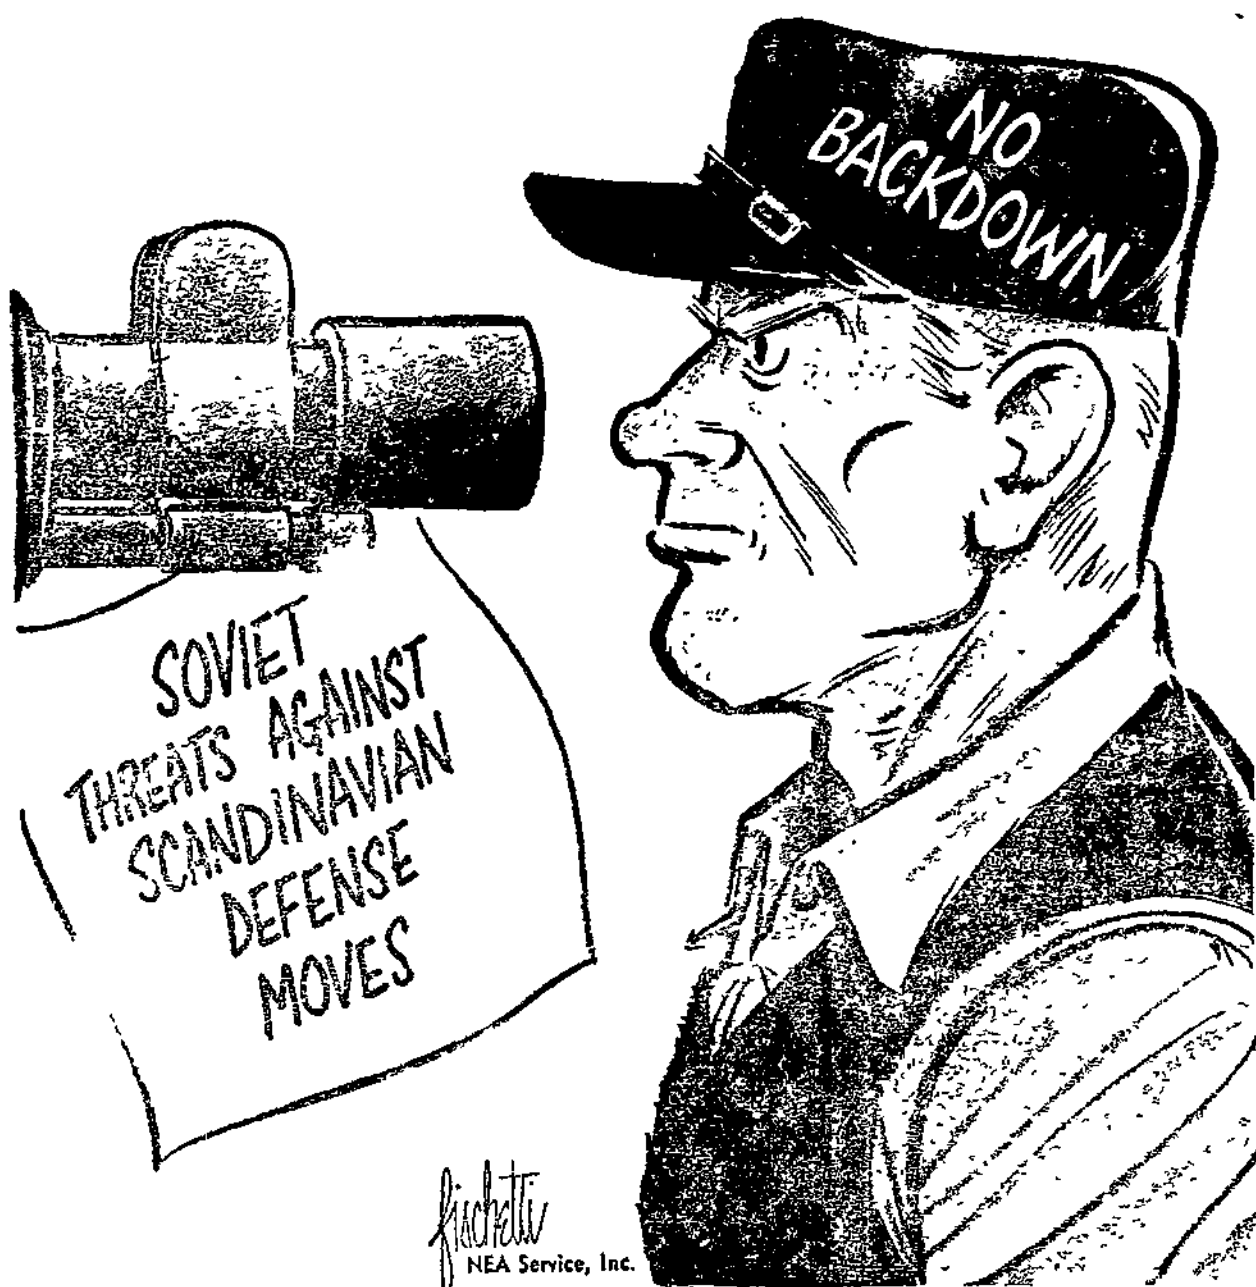

NO EXEMPTIONS

Traffic safety officials and a lot of ordinary citizens will be glad that President Eisenhower has ordered his Secret Service drivers never to exceed the speed limit hereafter.

There is no reason to doubt him when he says he had no idea his car was traveling 70 miles an hour on a recent trip to Gettysburg. But he undoubtedly knows as well as the next fellow that that is no excuse. Surely no traffic officer would accept it from an average motorist.

Maybe in the end the incident will have proved beneficial if it serves to emphasize that no one, no matter how important or influential, should be exempt from the traffic laws. For in this dangerous field, exemptions can spell death.

Here and There

Some items of interest from the "Brevities" column of The Evening Democrat of April 11, 1897, sixty years ago today, that will prove interesting to present-day readers. There are schoolboys in Warren who smoke cigarettes. The Warren who smoke cigarettes. The boys should be investigated by the parents and teachers and made to understand that a cigarette in the mouth of a young man is more pernicious physically than a pipe. Boys, if you must smoke, take to either the duden, or a good cigar. "Cuefew will not ring in Butler any more. A meeting of citizens was held last week and a committee appointed to request council to enforce the ordinance and assume a bill of $25 for ringing the bell. The borough attorney was of the opinion that the ordinance was unconstitutional and the same was repealed. "Wilbur Shawkey, H. P. Shawkey and a stock of advertising matter telling the merits of Century Cattle cure, Doctor chewing gum, Paragon tea, Matchettes tobacco cure, Kennedy & Kurgens' nerve seeds, a popular brand of coin plasters, all wool trousers and other things, left Warren Friday by house boat for Cairo, Ill., intending to advertise all towns bordering on the Allegheny and Ohio rivers. The tip will consume about five months and the experiences these young men will encounter would make an interesting book. Some odd places and strange people are found along the Ohio river. Harry Shawkey was, up until a few days ago, a valued composer on the Democrat. Wilbur has been a conductor on the street railway. These young men are known to be possessed of an amount of good stern stuff and their venture, we hope, may prove very successful. The firms they represent have not misplaced their trust and they may feel assured that their interests are being carefully looked after. "There were a few ducks in the Conewango this morning and a number of shots were fired at them. Alfred Todd, a young man residing in Water street, brought down the first one reported killed around here thus far this season. "Gentlemen in this city who argue against the use of tobacco on the score of health, have a powerful advocate in the life of a man lately discovered in the jungles of Jersey. He is 125 years old and smoked for over 100 years. Which inspires the Erie Herald to comment, "If this centenarian had never used tobacco he would probably now be 200 years old."

"Contracts for the F. E. Reed home on the corner of Fourth and Liberty streets have been let as follows. Stone work, Charles Hamilton, carpenter work, Fellows & Grindley, plastering, C. I. Beck & Son, plumbing, William Spinner. "The maples and the lilacs are budding out nicely, and the peach tree buds are big enough to enable the pessimists to say the fruit is all killed, just as they knew it would be just as it always is, found it, and so on. The pessimist is a pest. He should be sprinkled with insect powder, or dipped in a solution of used bugs."

Olaf Svenson, a regular reader and frequent contributor, expresses his feelings about the winter spell during the early part of the week in this manner, under the heading, "Go Snow, Go." "Snow, beautiful snow, go! Why do you linger on, when spring should be born. And you no more by wind tossed and torn, in drifts on the ground be strewn! Or to be gently falling from on high, a white mantle on the earth to lie, reflecting the light from a leaden sky. The sun so long hidden by overcast sky did leave you let her cover and shield from frosts unyielding strain, the life that in the earth remained, that they may live again. Your work is done, why linger on? The crow in his fight from hill to hill, by his caw caw does well that you go! And robin coming back again does not wish you to remain. Then why remain? Go snow go! You will have your tomorrow! Why, from spring borrow time? For what you borrow you will have to pay back again. What do you gain? When a lingering summer will that from you again reclaim. Then why remain? Go snow go! Do not wait for the morrow, spring and summer will then soon follow, and as night does follow day, autumn will soon come and pass away. Then again you will have full sway. By storm tossed low, all earth to you again will bow; but now, go snow, go—Olaf Svenson.

This dissertation on the opening of the trout season next Monday is from "Round the Square" in the Bradford Era: "With fishing season just around the corner, our wondering mind by the process of association of ideas at this moment turns to the few old-timers in this area who are adept at 'fingering' brown trout. The term of course refers to the technique of quietly feeling beneath the overhanging bank of a stream till a trout is located, and then gently lifting him out of the water with bare hands. All of which leads to the age-old argument as to whether a fish sleeps. Certainly they are unable to close their eyes and do not sleep in the ordinary sense as applied to animals. Those of us who have had aquariums have noticed on occasion fish lying on their sides, apparently oblivious to the world. Maybe they are asleep at this time—in any event they do not appear to react to movement around them when in this state."

Eleanor Smith, membership chairman, announced a tureen dinner will be held at the Warren County Dairy social rooms on Tuesday, April 30th, at 6:15 to honor all new members.

In addition to the $300.00 contribution to the Cancer Fund, the club has purchased and presented to the Cancer Society an electric gauze cutter, which will expedite the making of cancer dressings.

The following committee chairmen presented their annual reports: Gladys Judd, Helen Eoney, Jean Steele, Ruth Rapp, Ethel Kittner, Eleanor Smith, Margaret Drivas, Ellen Thoreson, Ellen Courtney and Lena Schaeffer.

Members were reminded to bring articles for the rummage sale to the store next to Walker's East Side store Thursday night.

Ann Parish reported on the Spring Council meeting held in Corry March 23rd. She stated that the Edith Ohler Flannigan Service Fund has been established to aid members of the Penna. Federation of Business and Professional Women temporarily unemployed for reasons for which they are not to blame. This will help them until they are able to obtain employment.

Sarah Jayne Hartman reported 34 members spent 62 hours preparing kits for the Cancer Fund drive and the balance of the club will complete the work next week. Daisy Branch, Louise Neily and Nellie Beckenbach were thanked for typing done for the drive.

Members were again reminded of the District meeting to be held at Thiel College in Greenville April 27th.

Busy Clubwoman May Be Wasting Precious Time

"I'm not going to hold a single office or be on a single committee next year. I've already passed the word along."

The woman who made that flat statement has for the past few years been one of the busiest clubwomen in her town.

So, of course, I wanted to know why she had decided to call a halt.

Her answer was simple and to the point: "I just woke up to the fact that I was spending my days running from one meeting to another."

"Once you get a reputation as a 'worker' you are asked to take on more and more jobs, until finally you are swamped."

"And one fine day it dawns on you that you are spending your life doing things other people want you to do and doing almost nothing that you want to do."

That is the way it happens to a lot of women. They start out to do a "little something" outside the home, and in a few years they are clubwomen, up to their ears in busy work.

They are rushing through life so fast that they have too little time for their families, too little time for their friends, too little time for themselves.

And when they stop to take a good honest look at what all their running around to meetings has accomplished, they often discover to their disgust that they have accomplished practically nothing.

IS IT ALL NECESSARY?

THEY are worn out from running around in circles trying to please everybody but themselves. And they haven't anything to show for all the feverish activity.

If you are in that state right now why not ask yourself a few questions:

Am I a clubwoman because I want to be one, or because I am afraid to say "No"?

What have I actually accomplished and what do I expect to accomplish by all this hectic activity?

Would I be happier if I pared my outside jobs down to a really worthwhile job or two?

It is easy to get into a rat race, but it takes some spunk and straight thinking to get out of one.

The Mature Parent

Teens Often Roller Coast From Gloom to Rosy Rapture

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

ON Friday night 15-year-old Shirley saw an Elizabeth Taylor movie. On Saturday morning she announced that she was sick of her pony-tail hairdo and planned to get an Italian haircut.

On Saturday afternoon she went to the beauty parlor. As soon as she reached home, she burst into tears. To her mother in the kitchen, she sobbed, "Just look at the mess they've made of me! I can never go out until it grows in again, that's all. Look at these wisps! Oh, Mother, did you ever see anyone look so awful?"

Her mother said all the comforting things she could think of. She told Shirley her short hair would be easier to manage. She reminded her it would be cool for the summer. She said that it would grow in again soon. But no comfort she could give was able to lift the burden of gloom from Shirley.

So her mother slept badly. Until almost morning she lay awake worrying about Shirley's inability to take discouragement. Every setback was tragedy to the girl from a classmate's slighting remark to losing the part she wanted in a school play.

"Is she insecure?" her mother asked herself apprehensively. "How will she ever learn to stand up to real disappointments if she's going to collapse like this over a hair-do?"

The worry was a waste of good sleep. In the morning, a radiant Shirley appeared at the breakfast table, her new haircut softened into a more becoming frame for her face. "It's sort of cute, isn't it?" she asked her astounded parents happily. "Can I have another piece of toast?"

IN adolescence the young often take us on these roller coaster rides from blackest gloom to rosiest rapture. Finally, we refuse to go along. We begin to realize that Shirley's over-intense responses to everything reflect an uncertainty of herself that is quite proper to her age.

But since we are past her age, we stop sharing her responses. After comforting her, we are able to fall comfortably asleep, thinking, "If this is insecurity, it's the kind that time will take care of."

This serenity in us is, of course, exactly what our turbulent teenager needs. It is our refusal to be overwhelmed by his self-doubting emotions that is his deepest reassurance.

Public Invited to Garden Club Talks

Warren Garden Club will hold a special open meeting next Monday evening at eight o'clock in the YWCA activities building and extends a cordial invitation to the public to hear its guest speakers.

A. C. Rasmussen, professor of ornamental horticulture at Pennsylvania State University, will talk on landscaping and pruning; Bernie Wingert, assistant farm agent for Warren county, will offer valuable information concerning lawn care.

There will also be a display of gardening supplies arranged by local business establishments.

The talks and the exhibit are both of particular interest at this season of the year and it is hoped there will be a large turnout of members and interested friends.

Sheffield Auxiliary Is Planning Spring Events

Ayers, Mrs. Isabel Rice, Eva Brown, Mrs. Nell Watts, Mrs. Irvine Howarth, Tracie Johnson, Mrs. Blenda Hinkley, and Ruth Work. Mrs. Gust Gustafson, child welfare chairman, stated this month all units join together in conducting programs to focus public attention on the needs of mentally-retarded children.

A Gold Star Mothers' banquet was planned at the May meeting, with Mrs. B. J. Hover, as general chairman. The Auxiliary will have a bake sale May 3, with Mrs. Harry Hanson chairman, assisted by Mrs. Beryl Burlingame and Mrs. Ray Loomis. A gift of $25 will be given to a community fund. It was reported the new collapsible invalid chair purchased by the unit has been placed in use.

The white mule award was won by Mrs. Beryl Burlingame and, to conclude the evening, refreshments were served by Mrs. Emma Angle and her committee.

DAR Membership Learns of School In Mountain Area

When General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its regular meeting at the YWCA activities building Wednesday evening, Miss Catherine Henderson, chapter historian, very capably reviewed the stirring book "Miracle in the Hills".

The volume tells vividly how Dr. Mary Martin Sloop decided to found a school at Crossnore, N. C., after she had sold used clothing to help a youthful mountain girl through school.

Dr. Sloop was honored in 1951 as "American Mother of the Year", and the school she founded is now a non-profit institution consisting of 250 acres of land and about 20 buildings where underprivileged boys and girls are housed, fed, and receive educational training.

Crossnore is partially dependent upon sales of second-hand clothing and DAR Chapters send many boxes of such apparel to the school annually. The local chapter sent 107 pounds of this material to the school in February of this year.

To supplement Miss Henderson's review, the Misses Patty and Susan Slick sang beautifully a group of Mountain Ballads, with accompaniment by their mother, Mrs. Edward O. Slick.

MISS KATHRYN L. STOWE, seated second from left, was honored with a luncheon given by associates in the business office of the Bell Telephone Company upon the occasion of her promotion and transfer to the position of staff aide at division headquarters of the utility in Pittsburgh. Others seated are Lois Callard, Manager R. E. Anstadt and Bettie Juliano. Standing, left to right, Dick Curry, District Manager R. E. Allen and Norman Hunk. Miss Stowe, who spent last weekend in Cleveland and took up her new duties Monday, was presented with a beautiful corsage and several personal gifts as reminders of the best wishes and esteem of fellow-workers.

Dessert was served by the April committee prior to the program, tables carrying out the Easter thought.

A business meeting followed the program, with the vice regent, Mrs. Harry J. Granquist, presiding. Routine reports included five minutes of national defense material given by Mrs. Stanley Cramer and a report on Naturalization Court held on Monday, when the vice regent and seven members were present to welcome the new American citizens.

WCTU MEETING

Russell-WCTU members met at the church Tuesday afternoon, with Ellen Lundgren presiding and devotion by Halie Russell, including the story of the Crucifixion and Resurrection, followed by discussion of questions on these topics.

Victoria Swanson, director of health and medical temperance, had charge of the program and presented as speaker Dr. H. H. Barr, of Warren. He recounted many of his experiences in the fight for prohibition, mentioned a personal meeting with Carrie Nation, and quoted Dr. William C. Menninger, famous psychiatrist, on problem drinkers. Dr. Barr advised prayer and work for proper legislation as remedy for these problems.

Mrs. Martha Houghwot and Mrs. Rosa Enos served refreshments.

TRINITY CHURCH SERVICE

The largest crowd thus far was present for the midweek thirteen supper and Lenten service at Trinity Memorial Episcopal church last evening, with the events scheduled a half hour early to permit parishioners who desired to attend the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra concert at Beatty school. The Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge continued his series of interesting and timely talks. He announced that there will be another supper and service next Wednesday evening at the usual time.

Mozart Members Guests For Philomel Exchange

The annual visit of Mozart Club members of Jamestown is always one of the highlights on the Philomel Club's schedule, and the program presented here by the visitors Wednesday afternoon proved no exception.

Opening selection on the program, given in the second floor music rooms of the Woman's Club, was a solo, "He Was Alone" by Paxson, sung by Mrs. George H. Tolley, with Mrs. Clifford Larson at the piano.

Heard next was Mrs. Harvey Osgood in "Musical Highlights", followed by a vocal group by Mrs. Hubert D. Tompkins, with Miss Anna A. Knowlton at the piano. Her numbers were "Lungi Dal Caro Bene" by Secchi; "Connaitu le pays," from "Mignon" by Thomas; and "Let All My Life Be Music" by Spross.

Playing two movements from the Mozart Concerto in D Minor was Mrs. Russell L. Johnson, with orchestral parts at the second piano played by Mrs. Donald Eddy.

Another vocal group was offered by Mrs. Tolley, using "O Mio Babino Caro" from "Gianni Schicchi" by Puccini; "Over the Land Is April" by Charles, and "Song of the Open" by LaForge.

Concluding number was a piano selection, "Valse de Concert" by Levitsky, played by Mrs. William P. Osmer.

Hostess for the tea which followed was Mrs. Charles R. Tiantier, who provided a beautiful spring-time table arrangement.

Perfume for a Purse: New Spill-Proof Bottle

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

PERFUME, any good perfume, lasts approximately four hours when it's sprayed or applied directly to the skin.

When you want to renew the application away from home, the only solution lies in a purse-size version of your favorite scent.

You want a container, of course, that's spill-proof and pretty, too, one that cannot release the scent until you're ready to apply it to your wrists and arms. You want a container that you can take from your handbag with pride.

There's a new perfume container for the purse available that holds a perfume favorite made for many years by a well-known perfume house. The container is gold-finished and capped, its shape much like that of a half dollar.

It releases perfume in the amount you want, when you want it. Otherwise, it cannot spill. The scent is a lacy, delicate one.

This girl drops a spill-proof perfume container into her handbag. Ideal for travel, too, its scent is lace-inspired.

Tidioute WCTU Enjoys Meeting and Program

Tidioute WCTU held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Grandin House Auxiliary rooms, with a good attendance. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Dorothy Craytor, with an inspiring Easter message.

Mrs. Frank Kapp, president, led salutes to the three flags, national, temperance and Christian, and conducted the business session. A gift of $10 was voted to the Torch Bearer Fund; plans were discussed for the veterans' box, with Mrs. Sagid Lawson as leader. It was decided to order 100 Gospels and make utility bags for soldiers at the Erie Veterans' Home.

Mrs. Kapp brought FBI reports on alcohol offenses in 1956, and reviewed "dry" bills introduced into the 85th Congress.

The president also took charge of the program, in the absence of the spiritual life secretary, reading scripture and a poem, "Christ of the Calvary Road".

She was assisted by several members, Mrs. Hazel Selander reading an article on Total Abstinence by Rev. Sam Morris; Mrs. Harriet Courson read "America, Look Where You're Going"; Mrs. Doris Lanning gave "The Responsibility of Church Members"; Mrs. Kapp gave the closing prayer and an article, "The Need of Spiritual and Moral Regeneration Today".

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lawson and her committee, Mrs. Doris Lanning, Mrs. Anna Cohell, Mrs. Freda Levine, Mrs. Pearl Lewis and Mrs. Florence Zahnizer.

At a recent meeting of the P.T.A. scholarship committee, the qualifications committee gave its complete report concerning the requirements to be met by students applying for the scholarships—to be given in the amount of $250.00. The award will be given at the high school graduation.

Following are the points recommended to the committee:

1. Any senior boy or girl in Warren Area High School specifically interested in teaching may apply. The district from which the student comes will not be considered.
2. He or she must write a letter of application stating:
 - a. his or her need for a scholarship.
 - b. his or her scholastic average.
 - c. his or her future plans.
 - d. his or her school preference.
 - e. honors, extracurricular activities, and offices held in school.
3. A personal interview with the qualifications committee will follow the letter of application.
4. Students must complete an application form compiled by the committee. This will include:
 - a. name
 - b. address
 - c. Parents' names
 - d. Why do you need financial aid?
 - e. Have you applied for any other scholarships? If so, what ones?
 - f. Do you plan to do part time work while attending college?
 - g. School preferences—must be an accredited school of Education
 - h. References:
 - (1) a teacher
 - (2) Pastor or church leader
 - (3) Community or business leader

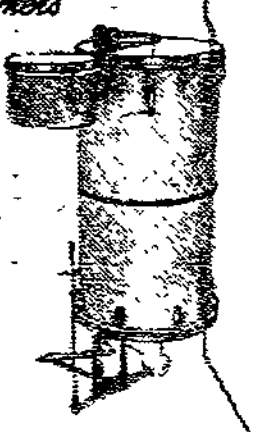

To add to the fund for these scholarships the committee is presenting two more attractions. The Blue Band from Penn State University will give two concerts on May 3 and the play "Fanny Gold" will be presented on Saturday, May 4.

Tickets for the Blue Band at 30c each for the matinee and $1.00 for the evening have been placed in the hands of all P.T.A. units in the area. They are available also at all borough schools as well as the B & B Smoke Shop and the Studio Shop.

Children of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades wishing tickets for the matinee may get them through their teachers. The matinee will be held at 2:00 p. m. in Beaver Auditorium and the evening performance will be at 8:00.

Denial Issued

Marian R. Ford, an aunt of Darcy, was McCloskey's secretary from 1935-38 when he was head of the Philadelphia Democratic Finance Committee.

"I felt an injustice had been done and something had to be done to rectify it," McCloskey explained his feelings about the case.

He added he had nothing to do with the case until the men were convicted in Bucks County Court. He told the committee that he distributed copies of a Circuit Court opinion on a Darcy appeal before the case was heard by the board.

He said he had "no regrets at all" about having entered in any way the legal fight to save Darcy and his companions.

Princeton, N. J. (AP)—Daniel McNeil, a purchasing agent for a rock firm, has denied he knows anything about efforts to save a convicted murderer from Pennsylvania's electric chair.

McNeil's name was mentioned publicly at a special investigation into operations of Pennsylvania's Pardons Board at Harrisburg, Pa., particularly in connection with the recent commutation won by David Darcy and two other convicted Bucks County (Pa.) killers.

McNeil was described at the hearing as a former personal assistant to Matthew M. McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor and Democratic leader.

Reached at his home near Princeton last night, McNeil denied he was a personal assistant to McCloskey, though he once worked for the contractor's firm.

Concert

and concerts will conclude the winter season of 121 performances in 51 cities scattered among 15 states from Michigan to Florida.

Major orchestras in the United States and Europe regularly go on tour, but usually visit only large cities. Last night's concert and five other stops during the season were, on the contrary, big musical events in relatively small communities.

In a press interview, Conductor Steinberg expressed the belief "a symphony orchestra faces a great challenge to preach the gospel of music wherever we can."

Steinberg, a native of Cologne, Germany, conducted throughout Europe and Israel before he was persuaded to come to America by the late Arturo Toscanini. He emphatically approved of the semi-commercial sponsorship which brought the orchestra to Warren, saying "it is infinitely superior to the European system in which similar orchestras are maintained by tax funds."

Serving as the Citizen's Executive Committee for the concert were Harry Logan, Jr., chairman; Donald Abraham, Mrs. Florence Aldrich, Allen Anderson, Neil Culbertson, Mrs. Joseph DeFrees, Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., Robert Geiger, Allen M. Gibson, Mrs. Margaret H. Lewis, Ed C. Lowrey, LeRoy Schneck, Harry A. Summers, Byron L. Swanson, Charles R. Tanter, Dr. J. T. Valone, Robert Widder, Dr. Carl E. Whipple, Vern Zellefrow.

Chairman Reveals Committee Heads for the Soap Box Derby in the YMCA beginning at 7 o'clock in rooms 5 and 6. These special clinic sessions are important to any boy desiring to build to be a winner.

Prizes are in charge of Ronald Howard, who announces that this year's prizes will consist of trophies for the winners of the first five places in each age bracket. Prizes will be displayed for the boys to inspect, as soon as they are procured.

Will Wakely heads the Inspection Committee, and has the tremendous task of inspecting each car to see that it meets with the requirements set down in the official rule book for 1957. Will's committee will have the final say on the interpretation of the rule book.

Special events are in charge of Frank McHenry, who will make arrangements for the banquet to be held after the Derby. This is the presentation banquet, at which time awards are made to the winning boys. The speaker for the event, and the pre-race parade are also staged and planned for this committee.

John Evans will undertake the job of coordinating all the committees and sub-committees in effort to make this year's race the biggest event in Warren County.

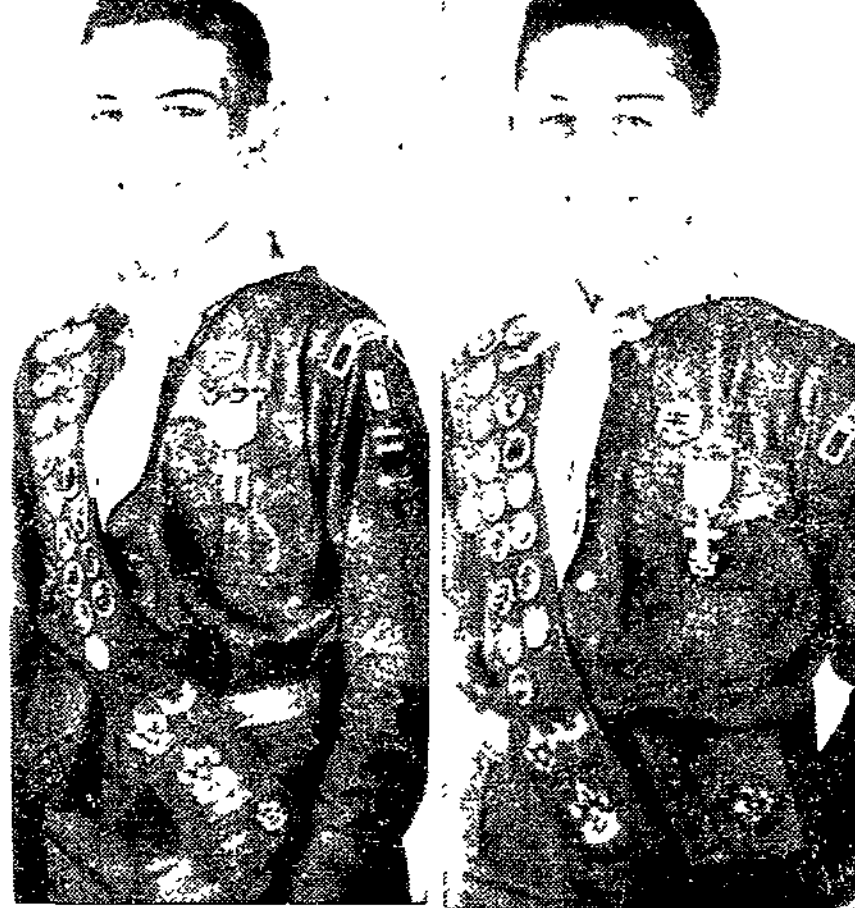

Watch the Times-Mirror for more Derby announcements and progress.

Director Harland is pleased with the aid the special committees are furnishing, and gives much credit to the local sponsors, Dan's Chevrolet, Warren Times-Mirror, and all the interested folks who aid in providing the boys, 11 to 15, with such an opportunity to not only build to be winners, but to develop the spirit of cooperation and team sport. The 20th All-American Soap Box Derby to be held at Akron, Ohio, is the greatest amateur racing event in the world.

Leonard Johnson heads the sponsor committee, obtaining sponsors for each Warren County's boys racer. Len can be reached by calling 2221-J.

In charge of clinics—is Albert Elias, who will be on hand at each clinic to help with individual problems and answer questions. The series of clinics are scheduled for April 10, 24; May 8, 16, and 22,

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Mr. Editor:

In the report of the Joint School Board meeting you have referred to the Citizens Committee as being opposed to public vote and terrorized at the prospect of one. As a delegate to said committee I wish to defend myself on these two points.

I believe in the rights of people to vote anytime on anything. I understand in this case, such a bill would delay a new school but I don't want it said that I ever worked on a committee to deprive people of their rights.

As for my heart, there is no terror in it now or has there been I have put in a lot of hours attending meetings, reading architect's reports, listening and discussing the school situation with various board members I reported monthly to the members of McClintock P. T. A. and told them it was my opinion that although it wasn't perfect, the Swick site seemed the only place large enough for a school which will be expanding. The group voted in favor of a new school.

Heaven only knows what these people are going to think of me after reading on the front page of the paper that I am trying to infringe on their right to vote and terror-stricken at the thought. I feel the least you can do is print this letter so I won't be thrown out of my P.T.A. as an undesirable.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Jeanette Rulander

Special Assistant On Assignments Is Named by Sylvania

New York — The appointment of Robert E. Lewis as assistant to the president, on special assignments, of Sylvania Electric Products Inc., has been announced by Don G. Mitchell, chairman and president. A vice president of the company, Mr. Lewis also will continue as president of Sylvania's Argus Cameras Division.

In his new capacity, Mr. Lewis will work with the company's operating vice presidents on major projects extending across divisional lines, Mr. Mitchell said. Sylvania has 10 operating divisions in the fields of lighting, television, radio, photography, electronics, chemo-metallurgy, and atomic energy.

The operations of Argus Cameras, Inc., an independent company, were combined with Sylvania on January 2, 1957. Mr. Lewis became President of Argus in 1950, a year after he joined the organization as Vice President and General Manager.

Mr. Mitchell also announced that the company's board of directors has nominated Mr. Lewis to be a director. The election of directors will be held at the annual meeting of share owners in Boston on April 30.

Prior to joining Argus, Mr. Lewis had been a consulting management engineer with Sanderson & Porter, treasurer of American Steel & Wire Co., and president of Cleveland Wire Spring Co. In 1948, he headed an engineering mission on reparations to Germany for the U. S. government.

Mr. Lewis is a past president of the National Association of Photographic Manufacturers. He is a director of the American Management Association, the Ann Arbor, Mich. Community Chest and the Ann Arbor Bank.

In growing flowers, it's the rainbow itself that is the gardener's pot of gold.

From a dozen packets of flower seed, the homeowner can surround himself with a vivid display of color—with a bonus of flower-perfumed breezes thrown in.

The suggested garden in the illustration above is virtually a palette for nature's paint brush. The flowers are placed so that their colors complement each other and the entire garden gives the impression of a carefully blended rainbow.

For a pleasing odor, the plan includes nicotiana affinis, No. 1, which is called the "sweet tobacco." Its white trumpet flowers give off an abundant perfume which is especially enjoyable at twilight.

No. 2, calliopsis, is the annual form of coreopsis, and has the same daisy-like flowers. Colors include various tones of yellow, orange, maroon and crimson with many two-toned combinations.

No. 3, annual larkspur, is the annual delphinium, rich in true pinks, dark blues and white.

No. 4, cleome, is the spider-plant, growing four feet tall and bearing pink flowers.

Scabiosa, No. 5, is one of the loveliest of cut flowers. Its popular name is "mourning bride" and it produces long stemmed bell shape flowers of fine texture and rich colors, which range from white to many tones of pink, red, lavender and blue.

Centaura, No. 6, is remarkable for its true blue, true pink and deep red double flowers. The type of marigold which should be planted in No. 7 space is the dwarf two toned harmony strain.

No. 8, calendula, is Shakespeare's "marry gold," still one of nature's loveliest flowers.

For space No. 9, lilliput zinnias make bushy plants covered with small double flowers that are fine for low bowl arrangements.

In No. 10, snapdragons of the garden type are recommended. They will bloom through most of the summer.

For other all-summer blooms, we have blue ageratum in space No. 11 and white petunias in the center space, No. 12. These two flowers are "old reliable" and make a striking contrast in adjoining plots.

Retail Prices Reach Record Level in January Despite a Drop in Food and Clothing

Retail prices in Pennsylvania continued to advance between October 1956 and January 1957 and again established a record all-time high. Secretary of Labor and Industry William L. Batt, Jr. announced today. Lower prices for food and apparel were more than offset by increased prices for all other major groups of commodities and services in the moderate-income family budget. The Pennsylvania average index for January 15, 1957 rose to 117.9 per cent of the 1947-49 average, a level 0.5 per cent above the October 1956 record and 40 per cent higher than a year ago. Details of Secretary Batt's report on living costs showed the following:

FOOD

The January food index declined 0.2 per cent from October to 113.6 per cent of 1947-49 average. This was 4.3 per cent above the level of January 1956, but still 2.5 per cent below the September 1952 peak. Prices of beef, lamb, poultry and eggs decreased while pork, veal and fish prices rose slightly. Potatoes were cheaper but other fresh vegetables cost more in January than in October. Fresh fruit cost less as lower prices for oranges and grapefruit offset higher prices for apples. Prices of frozen, canned and dried fruits and vegetables also declined. Partially offsetting these reductions were price advances in sugar, fats and oils, cereals, bakery and dairy products.

HOUSING

In the October to January period, residential rents averaged 0.6 per cent higher, housefurnishings were up 1.3 per cent, and household operation costs rose 3.1 per cent, as prices of furniture, rugs, appliances, telephone, laundry and dry cleaning services advanced. Coal and fuel oil prices moved upward 6.5 per cent while gas and electricity averaged 0.2 per cent less due to decreases in electricity rates for some cities. The composite index for housing rose to 119.8 per cent of the 1947-49 average, 0.8 per cent over October 1956 and 3.7 per cent higher than January 1956.

APPAREL

A slight decrease of 0.1 per cent in apparel prices during the quarter reflected reductions in fall and winter clothing. Lower prices were reported for women's wool coats, suits and dresses, girl's coats and men's suits and jackets. Footwear and men's shirts advanced in price. The apparel index at 105.9, was 2.7 per cent above the level of a year ago.

OTHER GROUPS

The transportation index moved upward 2.6 per cent between October and January, reflecting the higher cost of new and used automobiles, gasoline and automobile insurance. Medical care expenses were up 0.4 per cent as fees for professional services and hospital rates advanced. An increase of 0.6 per cent in personal care was due chiefly to higher prices for toiletries, barber and beauty shop services. Higher charges for movie admissions and increased prices of television sets were mainly responsible for an 0.5 per cent rise in the reading and recreation index and the category including tobacco, alcoholic beverages and miscellaneous services averaged 0.2 per cent higher during the three-month period ending in January. Comparison with indexes for the same month last year shows increases of 6.3 per cent in transportation, 4.9 per cent in medical care, 2.9 per cent in personal care, 3.5 per cent in reading and recreation, and 0.8 per cent in other goods and services.

Deposits in Penn'a Banks Reach New High During 1956

Total bank resources and deposits for all Pennsylvania banks reached a new high during 1956, according to figures recently compiled by the Pennsylvania Bankers Association. A 3.8% increase in total bank resources, and a 4.5% increase in total bank deposits occurred during the calendar year, the study shows. Loans by Pennsylvania banks to businesses and individuals accelerated rapidly in 1956 and, as of December 31, these loans totaled $7,083,498,051. This figure represents an increase in loan volume of nearly a billion dollars for the one-year period. At the close of 1955, total loans, in comparison, amounted to $6,387,361,445. This increase in loan activity led to a corresponding decrease in bank holdings of government and municipal obligations. These holdings decreased from a figure of $5,221,986,116 at the end of 1955 to $4,979,656,559 at the close of 1956. Total bank resources in Pennsylvania on December 31, 1956, amounted to $16,231,497,214. This represents an increase of $607,033,817 over the year-end total in 1955. Total bank deposits were $14,532,266,351 on December 31, 1956, an increase of $575,772,298 over the 1955 figure. At the end of 1956, there were 800 banks in Pennsylvania. 510 were national banking institutions and 290 were state banks. The total resources and total deposits in Pennsylvania banks are further broken down as follows: Total resources—national banks, $8,377,294,000; state banks — $7,854,203,214. Total deposits—national banks, $7,474,906,000; state banks — $7,057,360,351. TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

How To Prepare Your Live Lobster

BOILED LOBSTER

Have enough boiling water in deep kettle to cover lobster; and salt (2 teaspoonsful to each quart of water). Take lobster by back and drop head-first into boiling water. Cover and let boil hard 5 minutes, then reduce heat and let simmer (water in very gentle motion) 20 minutes. Serve boiled lobster hot or cold, with melted butter and lemon juice.

Fatals In Penn's Industries During January Total 75

Accidents in Pennsylvania industries fatally injured 75 workers in January, Secretary of Labor and Industry William L. Batt, Jr., has announced. This compares with 53 fatalities in December and 74 in January 1956.

A total of 7,008 disabling injuries were reported to the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation in January, Batt continued. This was 15.3 per cent more than the 6,077 injuries in December and 2.8 per cent over the total of 6,819 recorded in the same month last year.

A breakdown of injury cases in Secretary Batt's report showed the following Manufacturing vs. Non-Manufacturing—The larger increase (18.2 per cent) was in the non-manufacturing division, with 4,309 injuries in January as against 3,644 in December. There was 86 deaths in this group, including 15 in coal mine mishaps, 11 among state and municipal employees, 9 on construction and contracting jobs and 6 in retail trade industries. Construction and contracting led all other non-manufacturing industries with a total of 845 disabling injuries. Retail trade was next highest with 728 injuries, and state and municipal government followed with 561 workers injured. In the manufacturing division, injuries increased 10.9 per cent, from 2,433 in December to 2,699 in January. Iron and steel led this group of industries with 825 work injuries including 7 fatal cases.

Vehicles used in industry were involved in 144 per cent of all accidents, resulting in 18 deaths and 993 disabilities. Various types of working surfaces figured in accidents disabling 827 workers, 640 were hurt while operating machinery and 586 injuries were sustained while hand tools were in use.

In 53 per cent of the cases reported, accidents were the result of using defective or unsafe tools or equipment, or using tools or equipment unsafely. Defective agencies caused 3,462 accidents and 2,620 were due to hazardous arrangement, procedure, etc. Being struck by objects injured 1,904 workers, falls injured 1,571, and slipping and over-exertion injured 1,421. Cuts, lacerations, punctures and bruises caused 2,884 workers to lose time from their jobs, sprains, strains and dislocations disabled 1,586 and 1,291 suffered broken bones. Parts of the body most frequently affected were: back and spine, 1,093 cases; fingers, 1,006 cases; feet and ankles, 999 cases; hands and wrists, 689 cases; and legs, 677 cases.

In addition to the 75 deaths in January, 110 cases involved some degree of permanent partial disability. Time loss at work exceeded 7 days in 6,082 cases and 741 workers received injuries which disabled them for 7 days or less.

Summerfield Picks Up New Republican Support for Demand

Washington, (P) — Postmaster General Summerfield has picked up new Republican support in his demand for another 47 million dollars from Congress for current postal operations.

But vocal Democratic opposition to the request continued. Rep. Cannon (D-Mo) urged the House yesterday not to be "stampeded," and Rep. Porter (D-Ore.) demanded that the postal chief resign.

Summerfield has ordered a drastic reduction in postal services beginning Saturday unless Congress indicates the additional money is forthcoming for postal operations from now until the end of the fiscal year June 30.

Rep. Martin (Mass), House GOP leader, announced the party's House Policy Committee had unanimously decided "that if the services of the Post Office Department are to be continued at the necessary level we must give it the 47 million dollars."

A VERY important factor in holding down your weight (aside from cutting calories) is an old-fashioned but still reliable remedy: the daily walk.

All of us tend to take to transportation of any kind readily. Yet most of us have legitimate reasons for the daily walk and it's the daily walk that helps to keep the figure in trim.

If you're the kind who won't just take a walk for the pleasure therein, combine your walk with necessary errands for the family, household or yourself. Just be sure that you don't skip a day. (And don't let the weather give you an out. Umbrellas, boots and raincoats were invented to protect you from spring showers.

THE way in which you apply facial cream or lotion is fully as important as how often you apply it.

If you put it on with downward motions, the result will be sagging facial muscles.

To get the right results, start from the base of the throat and apply the lotion with an upward and outward motion. Work from the chin outward to the temples on each side of the face and upward over the forehead. The idea is to work against the lines of the face, not with them. But make the strokes light and gentle.

It's best to proceed with caution, until you get the idea. You'll find that with a few applications, you'll have a complete grasp of the procedure.

THE coming of spring brings with it a switchover in skin care.

Winter requires richer facial creams and hand creams. With spring, you can change to the lighter lotions for both hands and face. The notion of one type of skin care the year around is an old-fashioned one.

The kind of skin lotion you pick for daily use in spring depends to a great extent on your skin type, just as it does in winter. But so many lotions are available now that you will have no trouble finding one that's right for your skin.

Assemblyman Reporting

Newsletter for the Warren Times-Mirror prepared by Assemblyman Allan M. Gibson, assistant floor leader, House of Representatives:

This past week after numerous conferences with the Governor and the Attorney-General the Legislative Leadership worked out a series of amendments to the Sales Tax Law which were agreed upon by all the conferees. The amendments made the enforcement provisions of the law more workable and closed numerous loop-holes on one hand and more clearly spelled out the rights of the tax payer on the other. These amendments must yet be adopted by the Senate. In a few words the Administration was trying to broaden the Sales Tax by regulations. We, in the legislature, did not approve and the legislature was attempting to clearly limit enforcement to those fields which were defined in the Act.

We did not agree on the Administration proposals to abate some of the exemptions extended to Manufacturing, Shipbuilding, and Public Utilities. Our reason being, and I think you will agree—the Sales Tax is an ultimate consumer tax. Any sales taxes imposed on the above exempt category become transaction tax and will be included in the ultimate price to the customer or purchaser of the product and then we, as consumers, pay not only the retail sales tax but the accumulated Sales or Transaction Taxes imposed on the manufacturer or producer of the service, and therefore building into the final purchase price, and in so doing we would jeopardize job opportunity for our citizens by making our industry non-competitive with Ohio and other states where they do grant these exemptions.

Senate Bill 319 and House Bill 418 requiring approval by the voters on establishment or extension of authorities will be amended so they in no way destroy Warren's opportunity to have a new High School. If it is impossible to do this then my guess is the bills will die. I introduced House Bill 418 at the request of the Pennsylvania Grange and I believe it is a proper thing to require approval of the voters in such matters.

House Bill 347 passed the House last week. This bill provides for an additional increment of $200.00 per year for professional employees in the school system with thirty or more years of service until such teachers reach the maximum salary provided in the school code.

The legislature will recess during Holy Week and we hope to finally adjourn about June 1st:

Game Commission Reminder For All Trainers of Dogs

The Game Commission reminds all dog owners they are responsible for keeping their pets tied, penned or under control at all times. This is particularly important in spring and early summer when whole nests of tiny rabbits or of game bird eggs may otherwise be destroyed and deer may be killed by dogs running free and following their natural instincts. Beyond the fact these acts are detrimental to wildlife populations, owners are held responsible for the depredations of their dogs.

On the matter of training dogs, it is unlawful for the owner of any dog or a dog under his control, to permit such dog to chase, pursue or follow upon the track of any wild bird or wild animal, either day or night, between the first day of April and the thirty-first day of July next following.

An exception is made, during this closed period, when a sufficient number of hunters and farmers in a county petition for the right to hunt foxes. Even then the Game Commission stipulates a sixty-day no hunting period between April 1 and May 30, to protect wild game during the time most young are born or hatched. However, field trials may be held between April 1 and April 30 following the securing of a field trial permit from the Game Commission Division office serving the area within which the trial is to be held. In such a meet, where dogs are permitted to work on liberated or native wild game, the directors and participants must use care to prevent the injury or killing of the game being pursued. It is also lawful to hold field trials for dogs with red game animals or drags at any time between the 16th day of April and the 19th day of August next following, after having secured the necessary permit.

Score Looks Like Million Bucks Shutting Out the N. Y. Giants

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press
Southpaw Herb Score looks like million bucks. He may be the ace of the Cleveland Indians' pitching staff.
Bob Lemon has been just so-so in the exhibition circuit. Early in the season he was unable to get going because of a hip injury and Mike Garcia has been no sensation the past two seasons.
Score set a big league strikeout record for rookies in 1955, 245, and a 20-9 won-lost record and 263 strikeouts last season.
The Boston Red Sox offered a million dollars for him last March 18 but were turned down by Hank Greenberg, Indians' general manager.

ager.
Last night, Score turned in his best effort of the spring. He gave up only two singles and fanned seven in a seven-inning stint as Cleveland whipped the New York Giants 4-1. Willie Mays accounted for the Giants' lone run by hitting a home run off Don Mossi in the eighth inning.
Rip Coleman and Jack Urban, both acquired from the Yankees since the close of last season, combined to pitch Kansas City to a 4-2 triumph over Little Rock of the Southern Assn.
In other games, Ted Williams and Dick Gernert each hit for the circuit to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies; rookie Johnny Powers belted a 10th-inning homer to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 nod over the Detroit Tigers; and Don Hoak had three hits and two stolen bases as the Cincinnati Redlegs downed the Washington Senators 6-2.

Cleveland Barons And Rochester Are Even in the Playoffs
Rochester, N. Y. (P) — The Rochester Americans and the Cleveland Barons, who finished the regular season tied in points for the runnerup spot, are having just as difficult a time reaching a decision in the finals of the American Hockey League playoffs for the Calder Cup.
They have played two games in the best-of-seven series and each has won one. Both games went into overtime with the Barons winning 2-1 on their ice Tuesday night and the Americans counting three times in the overtime period for a 5-2 decision on their rink last night.
The series shifts back to Cleveland for the third game Saturday night with the fourth scheduled here Sunday night.
After a scoreless first period last night, two goals in a space of 17 minutes gave the Americans a 2-0 lead. Bronco Horvath got the first and Al McDonald the second.
Ron Ingram put the Barons back in running before the end of the period and at 1:16 of the third Freddy Glover squared matters.
After applying the pressure but failing to break through Cleveland's defense in the closing minutes of regulation time, the Americans went on a scoring rampage in the 10-minute overtime session. Paul Masnick counted twice and Ron Hurst added another goal.

Grayson's Scoreboard

NEW YORK—(NEA)—In the strange boxing world of James D. Norris, Constantine D'Amato finds himself with the heavy-weight champion and nowhere to go.
Floyd Patterson, who could do so much toward putting boxing back on its pins, sweats it out in training at Greenwood Lake, N.Y., with no plans to date for a summer defense of the title.
It's inconceivable that the manager of such an attractive heavyweight titleholder as Patterson cannot obtain employment for his fighters from the far-flung International Boxing Club, under the auspices of which Floyd sealed the heights. But Cus D'Amato insists that this is the case.
"I have paid for my opposition of Jim Norris by lack of work for my fighters," he says, one eye on a couple of kids in the creaky ring of his musty upstairs gymnasium on New York's East 14th Street.

IN PATTERSON, D'Amato obviously has what Norris needs, so the white-thatched dissenter was asked to give just one good reason why the promoter should give him the silent treatment.
"I must consider Norris a vindictive man," said D'Amato. "Perhaps he was embarrassed because I made him come to me and outsmarted him when Patterson boxed Hurricane Jackson last June."
D'Amato turned in a great job there, getting a $40,000 guarantee instead of the customary and ridiculous $4,000 in television money.

"TLL GIVE YOU a story that has never been printed," Cus said, smiling like a fellow who has put something over on a wise guy with good cards in his hand. "A year ago, when the Jackson match was made, Rocky Marciano had not yet retired, and I heard that Al Weill was quarreling with Norris."
"Without talking to Weill, I learned that the quarrel was authentic, so I said right out loud in a public place, 'If the IBC doesn't stop fooling around, Patterson will box Marciano for another promoter.' I knew what I said would get back to Norris, and to Weill's credit, he kept his mouth shut."
"The thought of such a tremendous match as Marciano and Patterson going elsewhere beat Norris completely. It wasn't long before a friend of mine asked me to meet Norris in midtown, assuring me that he would talk on a reasonable basis."

WITH NORRIS CONTROLLING two nationwide TV programs weekly, D'Amato sees little hope for independent promoters.
"Limit the IBC to one nationwide TV program and we'd have competition," Cus stresses. "It's the telecasting that makes it a monopoly."
"There aren't more than four heavyweights with whom Patterson could get any considerable amount of money—Jackson, Eddie Machen, Willie Pastrano and maybe Nino Valdes."
"Valdes was the only one not tied up by Norris, but when he scored three knockouts in Europe, the IBC quickly took him back in the fold."
"Valdes was a prospective opponent for Patterson; you see, Floyd had offers to box him on the other side. So, the combine quickly arranged for a match for him with Ewart Fogleter, that South African giant who can't fight a lick, in Portland, Ore."
"We can wait," Cus repeats. "Jim Norris isn't going to put himself out of business."

Moore Pounds Out An Easy Decision Over Gil Cadillac

Miami, Fla. (P)—Davy Moore, 23, a minister's son from Springfield, Ohio, earned himself a spot among the featherweight boxing title contenders last night when he pounded his way to an easy decision over Gil Cadillac.
It was Moore's first big chance as a pro fighter and he grabbed it eagerly. He was on top of Cadillac, the seventh-rated contender from San Francisco, all the way.
Judge Jerry Sherrard and Referee Pete Sarron each gave Moore a 98-93 vote. Judge Sam Margolis scored it 99-93 and The Associated Press 100-92.
Moore, a national AAU champion in 1952 and an Olympic team member, tore into Cadillac at the start and shocked him with several good combinations before the California champ found the range.
At the end of the third round, the crowd showed its appreciation of the brisk action with loud applause.
Before the bout there was talk of providing round-by-round scores for television audiences. No such scores were given, however. The Miami Herald quoted Harry Markson, director of the International Boxing Club, as saying the sponsor preferred that the idea be tried out on a non-network program.
Kline Will Be Ready To Take Turn on the Mound
Augusta, Ga. (P)—Righthander Ronnie Kline, who injured his knee in an exhibition game, says he'll be able to take his regular turn on time on the mound when the Pirates meet the New York Giants next week in Pittsburgh.
Manager Bobby Bragan hasn't said whether he agrees with his

St. Louis Hawks Have Backs to the Wall in Playoffs

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
St. Louis (P)—The scrappy St. Louis Hawks have their backs to the wall in the National Basketball Assn. title playoff with the Boston Celtics. But that's a familiar position for St. Louis.
The Hawks have been doing it the hard way all season in their rise from last place at the All-Star game break to contender for the $16,000 first prize.
Boston, favored but forced twice to rally to deadlock the series, owns a 3-2 edge in their best-of-seven series.
The dazzling Celtics, one of the most powerful scoring clubs in NBA annals, can win its first NBA playoff championship tonight. If they lose, the 7th game will be played in Boston Saturday afternoon.

The Eastern champs, far in front with a 44-28 season record, are not overconfident—they know the Hawks are hard to keep down.
"We've had our backs to the wall all season," declared St. Louis Coach Alex Hannum. "We can win if we get the rebounds."
Despite the phenomenal shooting of Bob Pettit of the Hawks and the great Celtic backline of Bill Sharman and Bob Cousy, rebounds have told the story every game.
St. Louis won the two games in which it controlled the rebounds.

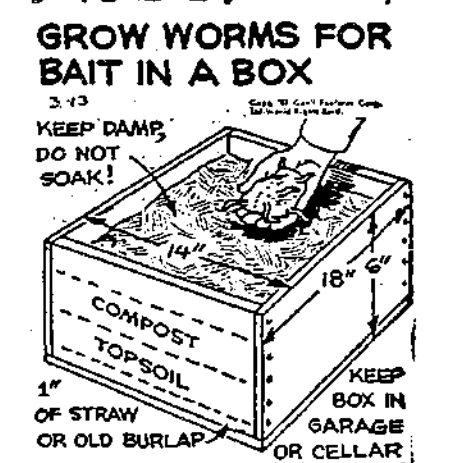

Oriole's Outfielder Has Fracture of Shoulder
Baltimore (P)—An injury to outfielder Bob Nieman may hasten the day when the Baltimore Orioles cut short the hedge-hopping phase of spring training and make only one or two stops en route home.
The 30-year-old slugger suffered a possible hairline fracture of his right shoulder in Dallas Tuesday while making a diving catch of a sinking liner.
Nieman arrived here last night by plane from Memphis. Dr. Edwin Mayer, team physician, said he was "in pain." Further X-ray studies will be made today.
Dr. G. H. Higley, Memphis orthopedic specialist, tentatively diagnosed Nieman's ailment as a "small crack" in the scapula, a flat bone in the upper back behind the shoulder. Higley said Nieman should be ready for the season opener in Washington Monday.

No. 2 hurler, but the field boss is anxious to have Kline in shape as the Pirates play Brooklyn in seven of their first 12 games.
Kline last yesterday he was heartened by a report given him by a doctor in Sarasota, Fla. He worked out briefly and said the knee didn't bother him. Another light workout was on tap for him as the Pirates took the field against the Detroit Tigers.

Fair Association Backs Referendum on Racing

Harrisburg (P)—A proposed state referendum on parimutuel betting at horse races was regarded by an official of the State Assn. of County Fairs today as a good candidate for legislative approval.
"We have been working for this for 16 years and prospects look good this time," said Charles W. Swoyer of Reading, secretary-treasurer of the fair association.
Swoyer referred to the association's fight to get parimutuel betting legalized in Pennsylvania—a move that has run into a road block in past Assembly sessions.

YESTERDAY'S FIGHTS

By The Associated Press

Miami, Fla.—Davey Moore, 128, Springfield, Ohio, outpointed Gil Cadillac, 129, San Francisco, 10.

PITT OUTLOOK GOOD

Pittsburgh, (P)—Indications are that Pitt will field one of its heaviest lines in years when the football season gets started in the fall. From tackle to tackle, the line weighs an average of 228 pounds. Coach Johnny Michelson will wind up spring drills with an intrasquad game Saturday at Pitt Stadium.

Speaking of Sports ...

Although outfielder Rocky Colavito of the Cleveland Indians was not too disappointed last season when not selected for Rookie-of-the-Year laurels, his play in the last few spring exhibitions would make it appear that he is determined to be designated the 1957 Sophomore-of-the-Year. Since the Tribe left Tucson a little over a week ago, Colavito has hit the ball at a blistering pace and it becomes increasingly evident each day that he and Vic Wertz may give the Indians a strong home run combination that may match any duo of homer hitters the club has had in recent years. Although Manager Kerby Farrell is hopeful that the former Cleveland formula of "good pitching and the long ball" may be replaced by "good pitching and the short ball more often," he is not one to discount the effectiveness of a couple of long ball hitters in the lineup. Colavito's 1956 performance of 21 homers and 65 RBIs in 101 games plus a .276 batting average was one of the hopeful spots in the Tribe picture last season. Only 23 years old, Colavito has the potential to become one of the bright hitting stars of baseball. Rocky's hitting in the early games this spring was disappointing to just about everyone except himself and Farrell. Both were aware that Colavito starts slowly each spring and Farrell assured everyone that he was not at all concerned about Colavito's slow start. In the last week, Colavito has justified Farrell's patience.

Pittsburgh city council, noting that next Tuesday "Has been fixed as the day which has proven fatal to thousands of American grandmothers," has voted to suspend all official business for the day. The Pirates open the new baseball season at Forbes Field against the New York Giants Tuesday. Incidentally, the Pirates defeated Detroit yesterday at Atlanta, Ga., 3 to 2.

ON ALL-STAR TEAM

New York, (P)—Two Pennsylvanians have been named on the all-star high school basketball squad chosen by Scholastic Magazines, the national educational weeklies. They are Bob Heffner, of Allentown, and Bob Mikvy, of Palmerton. Jerry Lucas, of Middletown, Ohio, was picked as the outstanding player on the squad.

R.I.S. SWELL RIVERS—Heavy rains cause small rivers to rise over their banks in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area. Here a recent carries one of its sisters through the flood waters. The three others wait on the porch. Tornados and severe windstorms also continue to cause death and destruction in Georgia and the Carolinas.

days, except for special delivery items.

Effective Monday, April 15, limitation of weekday mail delivery service in business areas to a maximum of two deliveries a day, and limitation of window service to a maximum of 8 1/2 hours a day, except for fourth-class offices. The latter serve the smallest communities, and postmasters commonly set their own hours.

Effective April 29, suspension of all third-class mail service, except for certain medical items. Third-class mail covers small merchandise shipments, samples, catalogs and advertising matter.

Effective April 29, suspension of issuance of money orders at all first- and second-class post offices, serving the larger cities.

The Post Office Department Citizens Advisory Board, composed of business and labor executives appointed by the President, backed up Summerfield's request for additional operating funds at a meeting here yesterday.

It also endorsed his demands for postal rate increases, including an advance in the letter rate to four cents and in the post card rate to three cents.

OVERCOME BY FUMES

Connellsville (P)—William Sepp, 57, was hospitalized here today, recovering from the effects of gas fumes which felled him and three other members of his family. A relative found Sepp and the others unconscious. They were rushed to a hospital where they were revived. All but Sepp were discharged. Firemen said the fumes came from a defective gas burner in a kitchen stove.

GAS RATE HIKE HEARING

Harrisburg (P)—A $6,473,720 increase in natural gas rates proposed by the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. will be given three days of public hearings by the Public Utility Commission starting May 1 in Pittsburgh. The increase, suspended by the PUC until November, originally was scheduled to become effective May 12-13.

NEW ATOMIC POSITION

Harrisburg (P)—Creation of the state position of coordinator of atomic development activities had Senate approval today. By a 50-0 vote, the Senate passed a bill for the $20,000-a-year job—to be filled by the governor—and sent it to the House last night.

McKEESPORT FATALITY

McKeesport (P)—Thomas E. Linn, 23, was killed early today in an auto that swerved across a street and smashed into a parked truck.
